TERMS & CONDITIONS

Event booking conditions
Please read before confirming your booking

Wedding Packages and Minimum Numbers
Regency Salgados wedding packages are available for a minimum of 40 adults. If the final confirmed number of adults is below this minimum, the Hotel reserves the right to revise the package price or propose an alternative arrangement. Any price adjustment will be communicated to the client for written approval before it is applied. At the time of booking, the client must provide an estimated guest count to enable the Hotel to plan the event and provisionally allocate suitable spaces and resources. A reduction of up to 10% from the initial estimate may be accepted, provided the minimum of 40 adults is maintained and the revised arrangements remain operationally feasible. All venue allocations, event spaces, room upgrades and package inclusions are subject to availability. They are not confirmed until expressly stated in the written booking confirmation issued by the Hotel. Outdoor music is permitted until 11:00 p.m., subject to applicable laws, licensing, local restrictions and the Hotel's operational requirements. Where an Open Bar package is selected, a minimum service period of two consecutive hours applies. Menu tastings are available for selected plated menus only and must be arranged in advance. Tastings are not included in the package price unless expressly confirmed in writing. Children aged 0–2 years are complimentary; children aged 3–11 years are charged at 50% of the applicable adult rate. From the age of 12, the full adult rate applies.

Booking Confirmation and Payment Schedule
The wedding date is confirmed only once the Hotel has received the signed booking agreement and the initial deposit equal to 25% of the estimated total event value. Until both requirements have been met, the date and requested spaces remain subject to availability.

- 25% of the estimated total event value upon confirmation of the booking;
- 35% of the estimated total event value seven months before the wedding date;
- 40% of the estimated total event value thirty days before the wedding date.

Payments must be made by the due dates stated in the booking agreement or invoice. Any change to the payment schedule must be agreed in writing by the Hotel. The Hotel may suspend planning, withhold confirmation of additional arrangements or cancel the booking in accordance with the booking agreement and applicable law if a payment remains overdue after written notice.

Guest Numbers and Final Arrangements
The estimated number of guests must be supplied when the booking is made. The final guaranteed number of guests must be confirmed in writing no later than three (months before the wedding date. The Hotel may accept a variation of approximately ten guests from the estimate, subject to capacity, staffing, supplier commitments and operational feasibility. Any variation must be agreed in writing. The final guaranteed number will be used to plan catering, staffing, seating and other event services and will form the basis for the final charges. Reductions submitted after the deadline may not reduce the amount payable.

Cancellation Policy
Any cancellation must be submitted by the client in writing. The date on which the Hotel receives the written cancellation notice will determine the applicable cancellation terms. The following cancellation terms are proposed for this booking policy and should be expressly incorporated into the signed booking agreement:

- More than eight months before the wedding: the initial 25% deposit is non-refundable.
- Between eight months and more than six months before the wedding: the initial deposit remains non-refundable. Any refund of further payments, if applicable, must be confirmed in writing by the Hotel.
- Six months or less before the wedding: no refund will be due for payments received, subject to any mandatory rights under applicable law.

Important: the cancellation wording in the source document was ambiguous regarding the period between seven and six months and the percentage refundable. The above wording avoids promising a refund that may not be intended. The Hotel should approve the final cancellation scale and obtain legal review before publication or use.

Food and Beverage
The Hotel offers a selection of wedding menus and catering formats, which may include three-course or four-course dinners, barbecue options, cocktail receptions and Open Bar packages, as specified in the selected package or written quotation. The client must notify the Hotel in writing of all known dietary requirements, allergies and food intolerances within the timeframe agreed with the event coordinator. The Hotel will make reasonable efforts to accommodate notified requirements, but cannot guarantee the absence of traces of allergens or cross-contamination.

The final guaranteed guest number will be used as the basis for catering preparation and charges. Food, beverages, equipment, services or other extras not expressly included in the selected package will be charged separately, subject to prior confirmation where practicable.

Weather and Outdoor Events

For events scheduled outdoors, the Hotel will monitor weather conditions and make reasonable efforts to deliver the agreed arrangements. Outdoor events are subject to weather, safety considerations and operational feasibility. If weather conditions make the planned outdoor service impracticable or unsafe, the Hotel cannot guarantee that an indoor alternative will be available. Where an alternative indoor space is available, its use may involve additional charges depending on the space, layout, equipment and services required. Any alternative arrangement will be discussed with the client as soon as reasonably practicable.

Suppliers, Entertainment and Licences

Preferred suppliers and any other arrangements requiring Hotel coordination should be confirmed at least eight months before the wedding, where applicable. All external suppliers must receive the Hotel's prior written approval and comply with the Hotel's access, safety, insurance and operational requirements. The Hotel must be informed at least three months before the event of any entertainment requiring licences, special technical equipment, electrical connections, rigging or other specific arrangements. The client is responsible for obtaining and paying for any music, entertainment, performance or other licences required by law, unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing. Additional technical, maintenance, security, audio-visual or specialist requirements may incur extra charges. The Hotel may refuse equipment, installations or activities that are unsafe, unauthorised or incompatible with the venue.

Damage, Safety and Personal Belongings

The client is responsible for damage to the event spaces, Hotel property, materials or equipment caused by the client, guests or suppliers engaged by or on behalf of the client, except to the extent that the damage results from the Hotel's own acts or omissions. The Hotel may charge the reasonable cost of repair or replacement.
The Hotel accepts no responsibility for personal belongings that are lost, stolen or damaged during the event, except where liability cannot lawfully be excluded. The client must ensure that guests and suppliers follow the Hotel's safety instructions and venue rules.

Fireworks, Pyrotechnics and Open Flames

Fireworks, pyrotechnics, open flames and any display involving fire are prohibited within the Hotel premises, resort areas and beach concession, unless the Hotel has expressly authorised the activity in writing and all required legal permissions and safety measures have been secured. The Hotel may prohibit any activity that presents a safety, fire or nuisance risk.

Additional Services and Changes

Requests made after the agreed deadlines, including extensions, changes to the programme, additional services or changes to the agreed layout, are subject to the Hotel's written approval, availability and operational feasibility. Additional charges may apply, including for food and beverages, staffing, equipment, set-up, technical support or extended service hours.
No change to the agreed package, price, venue, schedule or services will be binding unless confirmed in writing by the Hotel.

Deadlines and Hotel Confirmation

Unless a different deadline is confirmed in writing, the following planning milestones apply:

- Estimated number of guests: at the time of booking;
- Preferred suppliers and other arrangements: at least eight months before the wedding;
- Venue preference: six months before the wedding, subject to availability;
- Menu and drinks selection: three months before the wedding;
- Final guaranteed number of guests: three months before the wedding;
- Entertainment requiring licences or special technical arrangements: at least three months before the wedding.

Meeting these deadlines is essential to the planning process. Late or incomplete information may affect the Hotel's ability to provide the requested spaces, suppliers, menus, equipment or services. All arrangements remain subject to availability and written confirmation by the Hotel.

Acceptance and Applicable Law

These Terms & Conditions should be read together with the signed booking agreement, the selected package and the Hotel's written quotation. In the event of any inconsistency, the signed booking agreement and any later written amendment expressly agreed by both parties will prevail.
The final version should identify the contracting legal entity, its registered address and company details, and specify the applicable law and competent courts. Nothing in these Terms & Conditions is intended to exclude or limit any right or liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited.
